PROCEEDINGS

The Ninety-Ninth Annual Session of the Wake Baptist Association and Forty-Seventh Annual Session of the Annual Session of the Woman's Auxiliary was held with the Jones Hill Baptist Church, near Spring Hope, North Carolina, The Reverend C. C. Jones Pastor, August 11-12, 1965.

Theme, "Our Christian Task." Dr. G. S. Stokes, Moderator; The Reverend C. C. Jones, A.B., Clerk.

WEDNESDAY MORNING SESSION

Devotion conducted by The Reverends Morgan, Mangum, and Horton.

Song, "I Will Answer, When He Calls My Name, etc." Scripture and Prayer offered. The Moderator presented the Pastor, Reverend C. C. Jones, to give the Welcome Address. The Reverend C. C. Jones extended a cordial welcome to all present.

Because of the outstanding contributions you have made and are making, the welcome is yours.

Your deep religious faith and Christian achievement in this county, state and nation make us honor you as worthy Christian workers.

The Reverend N. A. Trice gave a hearty Response to the Welcome.

We are none other than God's people. You may expect us to so conduct ourselves as the people of God.

The Moderator gave away for expressions from the Delegates, the enrollment of messengers and the appointment of committees.

The Association Choir gave music, "Pass Me Not O Gentle Saviour, etc."

In the absence of Dr. Paul Johnson, the Moderator, presented The Reverend C. C. Craigg to discuss the theme, "Our Christian Growth."

The speaker said that the first step in Christian Growth is knowledge of Christ. When one becomes to know Christ, he seeks to be like Christ.

He grows by Bible Reading, dedication, consecration and prayer. We must make Christ first in our life. We must grow spiritually, mentally, socially. As we grow so do our churches.

Song by the Association Choir. The Reverend W. B. Lewis was presented to give the Annual Sermon. "The Power of the Gospel," was used as the subject. He stated that nothing takes the place of the gospel. It is the source for bringing souls to Christ. It is the power of salvation to them that believe. It breaks down the power of fear. It leads us to higher avenues of life.

Offering and presentation of visitors. Dinner.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

Devotion, Fuquay Springs, First Baptist and Franklinton.

Annual Message, President of Woman's Auxiliary, Mrs. Edith Trice — Please Read Message.

THURSDAY MORNING SESSION

Devotion, Reverend A. J. Turner and Dunston.

Echoes from the field. Music, Association Choir.

Dr. Wendell C. Sommerville, Executive Secretary of the Lott Carey Foreign Mission Convention was called to bring the message.

The speaker emphasized the rethinking of Foreign Mission to the extent that we give ourselves first before we attempt to give.

The first step in giving is self.

There are many pastors who would encourage more giving if they had been down to Troas. Dr. Sommerville stated that there are many churches in the Wake Association that could and would do more if the pastors would take the lead.

The speaker extended all pastors a cordial invitation to attend the Lott Carey Convention in Richmond, Virginia.

Offering. Presentation of visitors. Adjournment. Dinner.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON SESSION

Joint meeting — Association and Auxiliary..

Dr. James E. Cheek, President of Shaw University was introduced to address the Association. Dr. Cheek brought greetings from Shaw University. He thanked the Association for its loyal support to Shaw.

He stated if we are to have a better Shaw, we must continue our loyal support.

We must keep our faculty and teaching personnel in the forefront.

Shaw must have other sources to build up its financial needs. The churches throughout North Carolina must continue to play the role of giving.

MODERATOR'S ADDRESS

WHAT IS THAT IN YOUR HAND?

This, the 99th Annual Session of the great Wake Baptist Association, meeting here in this hisotric Jones Hill Baptist Church, pastored by the Reverend C. C. Jones, faces a crucial hour. Yes, perlious times in Christian World Affairs.

I am conscious that 12 months ago I was not with you in body by reason of illness. The good Lord has brought us up again. Thank Him and thank you for all the kindnesses shown me.

The far-reaching interrogation, "What Is in Your Hand?" comes down through the ages of time.

"What Is That in Thy Hand" is just as imperative today. Look! In thy hand is the possibility and power to realize a better local church. There is much to be done. Each official in the church should be thankful. But more dynamic stress on some present possibilities should be made. The church needs members willing to give 1/10th of their income for the support of the church. That is God's money. A large portion of man's 9/10th should be GIVEN to further support God's program.

Have your church members robbed God? Malachi 3:8 says: "You have robbed me in tithes and offerings." Let us confess our sins before God and do as his word says do. Each church member should set up his or her budget each year, a definite sum of money and pay it, for the objectives of the church. Why not, in the fall of the year, when you pay your church salary, pay the mission money in a lump sum, those who get money from the farm in a lump sum? Those who have a weekly or monthly salary, pay that way into the church.

God's church should not have to beg for anything. It is true we do beg. That ought not have to be. "The earth is the Lord's and the fullness thereof." I persuade you as people of God in this great Association to pay just 10c per month as an average into your church for missions. The church, then, and the money to Baptist Headquarters in Raleigh for the objectives of the church, Shaw University, State and Foreign Missions and the Oxford Orphanage.

Shaw University, the religious educational citadel of Baptist in North Carolina, yes to a large extent in the Nation, commands the respect and unstinted support of the citizenry of North Carolina and especially the Wake Association.

We praise and thank you for answering the call and giving immediate support in recent drives for Shaw. God bless you. Those efforts made and goals reached, are indicative of what we can do. Paul said, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."

Our hearts are heavy and sorrows many that the School of Religion had to be closed at Shaw. Can we help to re-open those closed doors? All Baptist working and paying enough money will do wonders. Shall we strive toward that goal? Shaw needs students too. Totally loyal Baptists will send their sons and daughters to Shaw, if Shaw offers the desired courses. When the tuition is a little more money, send the students to Shaw anyway.

Let us live unselfishly. Don't expect pay for everything. Give more for the cause. It has been the policy of the official staff of this Wake Association, through the years, to serve and not look for pay. Let no other philosophy and practice come here.

We join the President of the U.S.A. in saying "The Great Society."

"The Great Society" that the Wake Association constituency proclaims is noteworthy. We confide in and pride in the superior role of moral, intellectual and spiritual dignity the pastors and ministers of this body hold. May we ever keep that high role looking unto Jesus who is the author and finisher of our faith.

We believe that all the auxiliaries of this Association should pool their minutes for good taste, uniformity and economy in the use of the Lord's money. Today is a time for oneness in spirit and practice in Christ' program.

THE WAKE BAPTIST ASSOCIATION'S MODERATOR'S RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That Christians strive to obtain more of the riches of God's Grace through daily Bible study and prayer.
2. That winning souls to Christ and a life consecrated and dedicated to His service will be the ceaseless practice of the church.
3. That each pastor will conduct, or see that one is conducted in his church or churches, a training course that will inform the members of the Baptist Church Convenant and all methods of church progress.
4. That parents will take more time in training our children at home to be God-fearing and loving, mannerable, polite, truthful, honest, industrious and thrifty, thus causing the youth to grow into a good citizenry.

5. That we as believers in Christ will carry good will, fellowship, brotherly love, and hold to the belief of and practice the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.

6. That this Body, and all Christians, in these perilious times, will exercise steadfast faith in Jesus Christ, pray earnestly and STAY humbly before the Almighty God for Divine guidance in all things.

7. That the pastor and church conduct a Daily Vacation Bible School during the year.

8. That the church will teach its membership to purchase homes, live more economically and ever strive to be law abiding citizens.

9. That every citizen will exercise his or her high privilege and duty by voting for those candidates who will in office, earnestly stirve for the common good of all the people.

10. That the pastors and deacons of this Association stir themselves, rise up and TAKE the lead; do not wait, arrange for a training course in each and evrey church of this Body. Don't wait for the Church School to do the work of the pastor and the entire church.

11. May I, under God, urge each Deacon in each church, certainly the chairman, to see to it, encourage, inform and constrain each member of the church to give more money and give regularly for the support of the total program of the Baptist church. Give as God has PROSPERED us. The church will then grow stronger spiritually, financially and intellectually.

12. That each church hold at least two regular preaching services per month where and when it is practical to do so. Increase the salary of the pastor and other workers in the church to a justifiable and satisfactory sum of money.

    DEACONS, this job, to a large extent is on you. "Appoint over this business." — Acts 6:3.

13. That the officials of each church urge each member of each church to give at least ten cents per month for missions, Home and Foreign, Shaw University and the Oxford Orphanage. That will adequately support the total program of the Baptist Convention of churches (if every Baptist in North Carolina would do this). That would mean that the church with one hundred members will raise $10 per month or $120 per year. Furthermore, the 10,000 members of this Wake Association on a basis of 10c per month would raise and give to the objectives of this Body of churches $1,000 per month. LET US rise up, and GIRD OURSELVES as Christians, be strong and do more for God's cause.

14. To get the history of this Body I recommend that each church subscribe to and support the plan the Historian may present.

15. That we increase our giving money to Shaw University, Home and Foreign Missions, and the Oxford Orphanage. Each church and each member, should put into your budget each year a sum of money for Shaw and pay it.

16. That we REPRESENT into the Lott Carey Convention to the strength of our ability by delegation.

17. That pastors and other devout Christians encourage worthy young men and women to give themselves wholeheartedly to Christ and pray that He may use them to carry His message to a lost world. The women too should perform in kingdom building as Christ commands and the church appoints them.

18. The Woman's Auxiliary is doing a good work through the local church in the Mission Circles. May I urge each pastor and the entire official staff of the church, to see that a Mission Circle is in your church at work. Nurse and nurture the B.T.U. — the Training Department of the church. Keep it going too.

19. That this Body meet in Extra Session in the early spring of 1966 in some church to which we may be invited to go.

20. That a copy of what each church, pastor and layman gives to the Association, be sent to the Executive Secretary's office for publication.

21. That the churches give their pastor an annual vacation, thus giving him time for rest and self-improvement.

22. That all churches hold periodic teacher training classes in order that teachers may be better qualified to meet the needs of their pupils.

23. That all churches will seek the advice of this Association when their pulpit becomes vacant before calling a pastor.

That all churches will select their pastor for an indefinite period, thus avoiding confusion and politics in the church.

24. That the Association and Sunday School Convention continue their efforts together at a time and place when practical.

25. That this Body will earnestly strive to reach the following budget for the next Associational year:

Shaw University	$2,500
State Missions	1,200
Foreign Missions	1,000
Oxford Orphanage	500
Student Aid to Shaw	300
Church Building Fund and Pastors	300
Associational Operation	200
TOTAL	$6,000

Thank you for the support that you have given through your Association, to extend the borders of God's Kingdom. I pray that the guiding influences of the Holy Spirit may ever lead you.

GEO. S. STOKES,
Moderator

MID-YEAR SESSION

MARCH 27, 1966

THEME: "STEWARDSHIP"

The Association Hour began with the Moderator presiding. Song by the Associational Choir, "Glory to His Name, etc." The Moderator explained the budget of the Association for 1966. Budget approved. Song, "Saviour More Than Life, etc."

The Association went on record as accepting the meal ticket.

The Reverend C. C. Jones presented Reverend Alexander for the theme discussion.

The speaker chose as a subject, "The Earth is the Lord's." Stewardship.

1. A steward is one who is entrusted with another's property.
2. He is to give an account of how he handles it.
3. The owner expects an increase.
4. To be a good steward one must well know his master's expectations.
5. One must be a steward of influence.

Hymn, "Amazing Grace."

Offering, $75.41.

Introduction of visitors.

Dinner.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Reverend C. C. Jones, Presiding

Music, Zebulon Baptist Church. Reverend Jones gave further highlights on the Association Budget.

The Reverend John Mangrum was presented to give the sermon. He chose for a text, "I Will You the Key to the Kingdom."

1. How can a sleeping church save the world?
2. Second hand knowledge isn't sufficient to save the world.
3. The minister has the key to the kingdom.

3. Miss Balaria Parks — "Creation"
4. The Riley Hill Junior Choir
5. Wilbert Jones and Sylvia Townes—Riley Hill Junior Mission
6. Reverend Lerman Watkins — Church Counseling

The Reverned W. A. Morgan accompanied by Reverend John Mangum, Reverend Thomas Harris and Reverend Wright were on the platform. Reverend Mangum read scripture and Reverend Wright prayed. The Elevation Church Choir sang "Christians All."

Reverend Morgan's text was taken from Acts 10th chapter 6:10 verses. His subject "Vision and Christian Task." He stated that vision is God's way of getting something over. A task is a portion of duty assigned to a person. Everyone has a task and God reveals our tasks to us. Lives are changed by visions. To perform tasks well we must never be ashamed of our God. Trust God. The message was very challenging, inspiring and informative. The choir sang "Leaning on the Everlasting Arm" joined by the audience.

An offering of $14.22 was taken by Mrs. M. P. Taylor and Mrs. Sarah Holden.

Announcements and benediction.

THURSDAY, AUGUST 12, 1965

The Woman's Auxiliary for the Thursday Session was given an excellent message by Mrs. E. B. Cofield, Professor of Education at Shaw University. She asked her audience to consider the issue. She defined Democracy as the part of the Declaration of Independence which includes life, liberty, and a pursuit of happiness. She further stated that at times it takes work for us to progress. Love is the answer to many problems. We are people who worship God. We need not to be bound to the past. We can take pride in the progress we have made. Special virtues of democracy are liberty and pursuit of happiness. Knowledge is always above ignorance. There always must be education to accomplish life, love, liberty and pursuit of happiness. The issue isn't what we get but what we can give. The goal is a working world where each person is an

The address was ended with a very warm prayer. The message was dynamic, informative, inspiring and very receptive.

MINUTES

of the

MID YEAR SESSION

of the

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

held with the

BAPTIST GROVE CHURCH

The Reverend W. A. Perry, Pastor

THEME — "STEWARDSHIP"

MARCH 27, 1966

The session began by singing "What A Friend We Have in Jesus" followed by greetings from the President, Mrs. E. M. Trice. Afterwhich, "Yield Not to Temptation" was sung.

"ECHOES FROM THE FIELD"

Mrs. Chavis — Baptist Grove

Mrs. Harris — Juniper

Mrs. Corrella Dunn — Good Hope

Mrs. Pearletta Avery — Wake Baptist Grove

Mrs. Aldonia Pace — Stokes Chapel

Mrs. Virginia Harris — Zebulon, First Baptist

Mrs. Annie High — Wakefield

Mrs. Lovie Lucas — Riley Hill

Mrs. Adele Dunston — Sant Paul

All brought greetings from their organizations and gave reports on their progress and works.

Mrs. M. P. Taylor introduced the speaker for the hour, Miss Pennie E. Perry, Head of the Library, North Carolina College at Durham, as an educated and spiritually informed personality. She spoke on the theme "Stewardship." She defined a steward as the overseer of a large household. She stated that Christian principles are outgrowth of good stewardship. She referred her audience to II Chronicles, Luke, and Proverbs as a resource for good stewardship. She told her audience to go back to the "Old Land Marks" that our fathers have set. Let us be faithful stewards and work diligently, sincerely, as our fathers. Christians are the salt of the earth. The Church is not to achieve greater or higher principles but to repent and strengthen our stewardship. Then the world will get the impact of our stewardship on the world. As stewards we need not be reminded that we live in a world of revolution. Our faith should be revolutionary. Christians need not stand back when evils of Communism and others come just remember "In Him We Are Free." To be free, a steward must be redeemed. We should not wait until the end of life to ask forgiveness. Salvation is free for redemption also means we are not ours alone. We belong to God. All we own belongs to God. Let Him make you a captive and use you. The message was very informative, dynamic and spiritually delivered.

"Higher Grounds" followed the message. Mrs. Taylor, the Vice President, acknowledged and gave thanks to Miss Perry for such a wonderful message. Mrs. Trice added to the words of thanks and turned the meeting over to Dr. Stokes after singing hymn, "Near the Cross." for other Associational Activities.
